

HISTORY OF ART: ROCOCO TO POST-IMPRESSIONISM

Winter 2019

Day Course (Tuesday) | Lectures: 10.30am-12.45pm | Fee: £575 (£525 if booked by 25 December, 2018)

From the birth of Rococo to the avant-garde experiments of the Post-Impressionists, this six-session course explores the exciting history of 18th and 19th century art. These radical and revolutionary art movements changed the ways in which art is viewed and laid the foundations for today's art world. The course is perfect for those who wish to develop their knowledge of the period and its masterpieces. A guided visit led by Consultant Lecturer Dr James Hicks to Tate Britain is also included in this course.
