

ASIAN ART BUSINESS

Autumn 2019

Day Course | 4-8 November 2019 | Sotheby's Institute of Art, 30 Bedford Square, London WC1B 3EE
 Fee: £1,350 (concession rates are available)

London is a leading centre of expertise in the field of Asian art, while Asian Art in London (AAL) is firmly established as a key annual event attracting gallerists, dealers, collectors and curators from all over the world. The British capital plays a pivotal role in developing the diverse and prolific area of modern and contemporary Asian art within Europe in response to its rising profile in the global art market. This five-day course provides participants with a solid overview and understanding of the key structures and issues both within and outside Asia. It also examines the impact of prevailing trends on both artistic practices and the art business landscape today. The course coincides with AAL Week (31st October – 9th November 2019) and is complemented by guided visits to Asian Art auction preview, gallery and museum exhibitions in central London.
