

Benoit Colson, Specialist, Watches, Sotheby's

Benoit Colson joined Sotheby's in 2014. Based in London, he travels extensively across Europe to meet with clients and has played a key role in securing numerous important consignments. In addition to business-getting, he is deeply involved in the creation of catalogues for auctions in London and Geneva. As a specialist, he has developed an in-depth knowledge and expertise in Patek Philippe and Rolex watches. Originally from Belgium, Benoit holds several master's degrees in History of Art and the art market from the University of Brussels and the École du Louvre in Paris.

Sotheby's INSTITUTE OF ART